Good Day Nubian Skiers

The wait is over! Our next ski & snowboard holiday is truly heaven sent, as we will be heading for the magnificent, Pas de la Casa – ski resort in Andorra and the highest resort in the impressive Pyrenees Mountain range.

Andorra is an area of outstanding beauty and straddles the borders of both France and Spain. It has a magical landscape, traditional charm and is a vibrant centre. Skiers and boarders will relish the 210 km of ski slopes and many routes serviced by 43 drag lifts, 28 chair lifts. The mountain range features a summit elevation of 7,020 feet and the longest run of 8km.

Skiers, and Non-skiers can find plenty to do away from the scenic Andorran slopes especially as the area is a tax haven including,

PLENTY of tax-free shopping (excellent for luxury items) so definitely make your shopping list from now. There's also snowmobiling, hiking, local wellness spas, fantastic restaurants and NUFF après ski activities.

We are staying at luxurious 4-star Hotel Grand Pas which is virtually ski in / ski out as it is only 50 metres from the slopes. Newly decorated, this hotel has 99 rooms, and our stay includes:
